Newburn to Wylam (North of the Tyne)

Walk

Newburn to Wylam

GETTING THERE

Get bus or car to Newburn. Return either walk back to Newburn or catch train or bus from Wylam to Newcastle.

SUITABLE FOR DISABLED PEOPLE

The paths have Tarmac surfaces and are very flat and even.

HAZARDS AND BARRIERS

Hazards to look out for include Cyclists, people walking dogs, horse riders and farm vehicles.

There is a 5 bar-gate just over 1 mile along the path. This separates the path from the farm. People will need to watch out for farm traffic.

WHAT YOU CAN SEE

Great scenery of the river and wildlife!

FACILITIES

Refreshments can be got from Newburn Leisure Centre, Keelman pub, George Stephenson's tearoom, and various shops and pubs in Wylam.

Toilets are available at Newburn Leisure Centre, car parks, George Stevenson's cottages or at pubs in Wylam.

DIFFICULTY

The walk is easy to do and is approximately 3 miles / 2 hours.
